Description

Occupying a prime position within the Westcombe Park conservation area comes this beautifully finished home with 2000 sq ft of accommodation set over three levels, this property has it all and would suit a family looking for a home that's ready to move into.

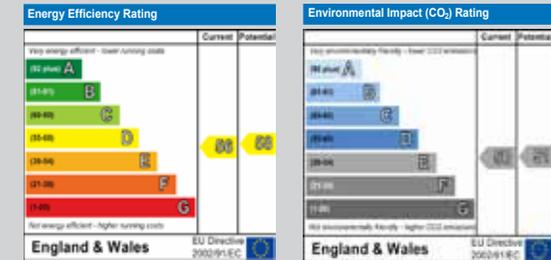

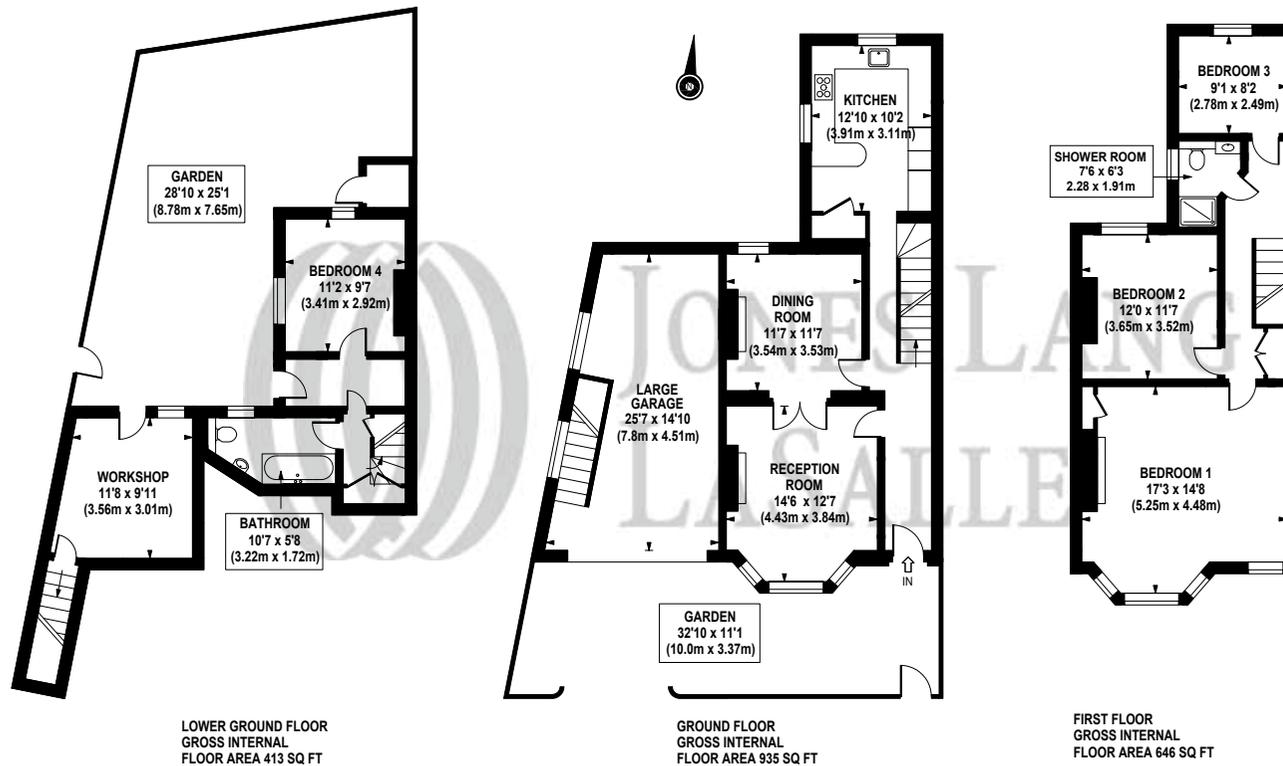

With neutral and contemporary tones throughout and stylish kitchen and bathrooms, this house will prove popular with City Professionals alike. From the panoramic views to the off street parking, workshop and garage, this property has so many attributes that set it apart from any home currently being marketed.

We strongly urge an immediate internal inspection on what we believe to be a one off home.
